My dear Mr Tomson

I have not received the cheque for which I thank you, as well as for all your kindness and attention to me. I cannot express to you the joy I should feel if the Chancy money could be claimed for me, I am indeed much in want of it, for a violent hail storm has destroyed the produce of a great part of my vineyards, Add to this, my youngest grandson in December next, will enter the list of conscripts, and if he should have an unlucky number it will cost us £80 to liberate him.

I dont think that any interest you might express for me, could be considered as an interference by
